DSA-330 : Data Warehousing

This course introduces the methods for developing data warehouses. Core topics include data warehouse design, implementation, and maintenance. This course takes a practical approach to introduce the best practices of using data warehousing to support business intelligence (BI).

Credits 3
Prerequisites
DSA-230
Term Offered
Fall Only
Session Cycle
F