DSA-400 : Intelligent Search Methods

This course introduces the methods for intelligent searches. Core topics include logic fundamentals for AI, state models, and inference engines. The students will explore AI applications of intelligence search methods, and gain hands-on experience in developing preliminary an intelligence search engine. Offered alternate years.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

DSA-300; CSCI-210

Term Offered

Fall Only

Session Cycle

F