

ENG-366 : Studies Novel

Study of the development of the novel as a distinctive literary form with emphasis on different techniques, conventions and themes of the genre exemplified by representative works chosen from American, British, and other national literatures. FILA general education: literature.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

ENG-110

Term Offered

Spring Only

Session Cycle

S