

HIST-311 : Early Modern Europe in the World, 1492-1789

Surveys developments in European history from the arrival in the New World to the eve of the French Revolution to equip students to make comparisons to contemporary life. Major topics include Europeans' interactions with peoples and cultures outside Europe, the Reformation, the development of both limited and absolutist governments, the Scientific Revolution, and the Enlightenment. FILA general education: world cultures. Offered alternate years.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

FILA-150 or FILA-350EW

Term Offered

Fall Only

Session Cycle

F