

LANG-201 : Exploration of World Languages III

Provides an intermediate level introduction to a non-European language and culture. Examples include, but are not limited to: Arabic, Mandarin, Japanese or other languages in demand. Provides an intermediate understanding of alphabet/character set, pronunciation, themed vocabulary, basic communicative skills and grammar, along with cultural knowledge, etc. Arabic is currently offered on-campus.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

LANG-102; sophomore standing for non-Bridgewater based courses

Term Offered

Fall Only

Session Cycle

F