

PHIL-225E : Contemporary Moral and Political Problems

Examines pressing moral and philosophical questions that have become major political issues of our day. Problems considered include abortion, sexism, racism, drugs, privacy and censorship, civil disobedience, and others of interest to the group. FILA general education: philosophy or religion and ethical reasoning. Offered alternate years.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

FILA-150 or FILA-350EW; ENG-110

Term Offered

Fall Only

Session Cycle

F