

PHIL-228E : Philosophy of Popular Culture

A systematic philosophical analysis of the major entertainment media of modern American culture aimed at determining the values reflected in and arising from popular movies, television, comics, music, and literature. Students select and research materials from the most popular national media, assessing the reasons for their extreme popularity. FILA general education: philosophy or religion and ethical reasoning.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

FILA-150 or FILA-350EW; ENG-110

Term Offered

Spring Only

Session Cycle

S