

SOC-208E : Food Politics

An introduction to a variety of political, ethical and social justice issues surrounding local, national and global food systems. It includes discussions of food policy, food security, food waste, food and farm workers' rights, and the environmental impact and sustainability of our current food production systems. FILA general education: global dynamics and ethical reasoning.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

FILA-150 or FILA-350EW; ENG-110

Term Offered

Spring Only

Session Cycle

S