

AT-531 : Therapeutic Interventions II

Introduces manual therapy techniques, functional rehabilitation and return-to-activity assessment. Manual therapy techniques such as joint mobilizations, instrument-assisted soft tissue mobilization, strain counter strain and massage are examined. An emphasis is placed on patient assessment, clinical decision making in design and progression, patient/clinician-oriented outcomes and equipment safety and maintenance.

Credits 3.5

Term Offered

Spring Only

Session Cycle

S