DSA-230 : Database Systems

Introducing database systems and database management. The emphases are database design and implementation. The topics covered include ERM (ERD) and EERM (EERD), relational and object-oriented database design, SQL and QBE. This course focuses on practical skill in database design and implementation. Prerequisites: CSCI-210 or permission of instructor

Credits 3
Prerequisites
CSCI-210, or permission of instructor
Term Offered
Spring Only
Session Cycle
S
Grade Scheme
BC