

PHYS-495 : Senior Thesis

With prior permission of the Physics Department, a summer research experience in physics or a closely-related field may be used as the basis for a written thesis and oral defense. The thesis will demonstrate synthesis of previous coursework in the program and a professional level of writing and oral communication. Prerequisites: Senior standing with a major in physics or applied physics, or permission of instructor

Credits 1

Prerequisites

Senior standing with a major in physics or applied physics, or permission of instructor

Term Offered

Fall and Spring

Session Cycle

FS

Grade Scheme

BC